From Eighth Note Publications : Concerto in D Minor, BWV 596: Score Parts (Eighth Note Publications)

before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Concerto in D Minor, BWV 596: Score Parts (Eighth Note Publications):

The Concerto in D minor is a truly exciting addition to the double brass quintet repertoire. This arrangement has been taken from an organ work by Bach. It is one of the transcriptions from a set of 12 concertos for strings and basso continuo by Vivaldi entitled L'Estro Armonico. The transition from organ to brass makes the piece all the more exciting adding additional colours to Vivaldi's original writing. The slow movement features the piccolo trumpet with the trumpets and trombones adding rhythmic chords in cup mutes. A guaranteed success in a recital or concert program and combined with the natural acoustics of a church, this powerful music could be the central work in a brass choir program.
