Sounds like he knows what he is talking about and no bullshalony. Lets you know that most likely you will lose some money but not as fast. ArmstrongYou'd never guess from looking at this book that it's one of the all-time classics of craps advice. Hey, if you want to play from a pro, you gott LOIN from a pro! Reading this book is like learning how to play craps from a guy who's been standing at a craps table in downtown Las Vegas for the last fifty years without a break. This book is the foundation of my craps library. Highly recomended.

A helpful collection of plays and pieces of advice for the crapshooter that wants to play for keeps.
