Antonio Vivaldi : Credo, RV 591: Vocal score (Latin Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Credo, RV 591: Vocal score (Latin Edition):

For the Credo in E minor, RV 591, Vivaldi borrows some material he composed for his Magnificat, which places it later - probably after 1727. This completely choral work has much in common stylistically with the very famous Gloria, RV 589 and with his earlier psalm setting In exitu Israel (RV 604). Clayton Westermann's classic edition, with an English translation beneath the Latin text, is reprinted here in a digitally-enhanced, easy-to-read format.
