I have several of these books which I keep in the guest room. People start trying to solve the mysteries and end up staying up too late! It's just the right amount of fun, and most people will get some and miss on others. But, They are always a hit. This one is especially nice with the island theme. Great fun as a gift also for the puzzle enthusiast. One used book well worth purchasing. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I just love how Lawrence Treat writes. By Tansit I just love how Lawrence Treat writes, he is funny and smart. The mysteries are fun, they are not hard to solve like a university rocket science test, but they aren't always easy either. I had fun reading the book without worrying too much about being right. The fun for me was to see how way off the mark I was, and how he could possibly explain the mystery. If you don't take it too seriously, you'll enjoy it. 1 of 1 people found the

Groups will have to support their decision base upon the evidence...looking forward to the upcoming school year...paying attention to details is required to solve correctly..any subject area can use this as brief activities.

Sam, of Martha Vineyard's All-Island Integrated Police Force, stars in twenty-four new picture mysteries, including "The Peek-a-Boo Girl," "Night of the Crabs," and "Incident at the Ferry." Original.
