About the Author When I was born, I could say, born in the jungles of Central America, El Salvador, in a small town of no more than 4000 people. Education, what we called "primaria" was at "Colegio Santa Teresita de Jesus", "secundaria" "Colegio Externado de San Jose a Jesuit Catholic School, where I learned not to be afraid to question any one, like asking if Jesus went to India to learn magic before he reappeared taunting the Romans. Next stop was "The University Autonoma de El Salvador, Escuela de Arquitectura, "autonoma" means that was regulate by itself. A place, where everyone looks out for their future and start to be aware, of the relationship between the power of money and the defenseless and vulnerable poor. An uneven relationship, an equation composed of physical facts that persist disrupting the social relationships of mankind. My childhood was very ecological, jungle ecological, I was not exposed or entertained by visual mechanical images. The cinema in my home town only had three shows a week and there was no television. My mind was not influence by the created images of others, I made my own. Blessed by a gift of God, I draw very well, and in order to illustrate accurately I observe with patience. I had seen the funeral of a cockroach carried by a swarm of ants and I fallowed the trail to the feast. I had seen many stray dogs, rutting their lover that led me to ask my mother "what are the dogs doing stuck, and she said little Felipito that is natural, they are procreating, the dogs appeared to be in a suffering condition. That later, confuse me I, thought for a while, that men and women stuck together and suffered while procreating and that was the reason why they hide together in a rooms for long period of time. We kids did not have knowledge about sex; we had to learn by blind experience, or imitation. Casually some zoo animals were exhibitionist or flashers and performed for the innocent bystanders, once in a whil
