0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Some excellent scripting By Peter This book came out in the 1970's and features the scripts of a few of the episodes of this series. The shows chosen were good but maybe not the best ones they made (personal preference only). Has some nice photos and brief biographical information of the actors. Nice little book.

One of a series of reissued cassette packs featuring radio episodes of "Dad's Army". These four episodes - "Ten Seconds From Now", "A Jumbo-Sized Problem", "When Did You Last See Your Money?" and "Time On My Hands", were first broadcast in 1975 and 1976.

About the Author Jimmy Perry (Author) Jimmy Perry was born in Barnes, London in 1924. Aged 16 during the Second World War, he joined the Home Guard and then served with the Royal Artillery as a sergeant, also setting up a concert party as entertainment for the troops. After the war he trained as an actor. His writing partnership with David Croft began in 1968, and between them they created such hit shows as Dad's Army, It Ain't Half Hot Mum, Hi-de-Hi and You Rang, M'Lord? David Croft (Author) David Croft was born in Poole, Dorset. He became a Major in the Second World War, serving in India, North Africa and Singapore. After the war he worked as an actor and then turned to writing. His involvement in television led to producing and directing. His numerous producer credits include Steptoe and Son and 'Til Death Us Do Part. As well as his partnership with Jimmy Perry, he developed Are You Being Served? and 'Allo 'Allo as a co-writer and producer with Jeremy Lloyd. He was awarded the OBE in 1978. He died in 2011.
