Blago Kirov : Dante Alighieri: Quotes Facts before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dante Alighieri: Quotes Facts:

This book is an anthology of quotes from Dante Alighieri and selected facts about Dante Alighieri. All hope abandon, ye who enter here! And in His will is our peace. And thence we came forth to see again the stars. Be like a solid tower whose brave height remains unmoved by all the winds that blow; the man who lets his thoughts be turned aside by one thing or another, will lose sight of his true goal, his mind sapped of its strength. Beauty awakens the soul to act. Come, follow me, and leave the world to its babblings. Follow your own star! From a little spark may burst a flame. He listens well who takes notes. Heat cannot be separated from fire, or beauty from The Eternal. I love to doubt as well as know. If thou follow thy star, thou canst not fail of glorious heaven. In the middle of the journey of our life I came to myself within a dark wood where the straight way was lost. Love alone is the true seed of every merit in you, and of all acts for which you must atone. Love with delight discourses in my mind Upon my lady's admirable gifts... Beyond the range of human intellect. Mankind, why do ye set your hearts on things that, of necessity, may not be shared? Nature is the art of God eternal.
