Original Radio Broadcasts : Our Miss Brooks: Boynton Blues (Old Time Radio) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Our Miss Brooks: Boynton Blues (Old Time Radio):

Miss Brooks, played by Eve Arden, lust for one Philip Boynton (who is played by Jeff Chandler before his movie career took off). These are all funny stories in the setups, there are a metric butt ton of innuendo that is pretty funny to hear, and then what would be all the stock characters for most school sitcoms as well as tropes. These are good for a road trip or just to listen to as background at work or home instead of the usual radio farce. The stories are pretty funny and they are tame enough to listen to around kids. I have a 4 yr old and she listens to these without asking inappropriate questions about the innuendo or double entendre that are spoken. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great show from a great era. By George Fernet Love OTR and this is no exception. Although, getting the shows as mp3's and being able to fit over 100 on a cd instead of 3 per disk is more preferable. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love Connie! By Drake Halstead This is one of 3 "Our Miss Brooks" sets I have. Very little overlap. This is a good collection... An early example of the sitcom with episodes from 1948 to 1955. Clean fun.

Eve Arden stars as the tart-tongued Constance Brooks, a dedicated English teacher at Madison High School. Before and after the bell rings, Miss Brooks turns her thoughts from language to love. Indulging in her perpetual pursuit of bashful biology teacher Philip Boynton (Jeff Chandler), Connie finds herself making his favorite stew, conspiring to make him sick, and pretending to be his mother! She even considers compromising her principles (and her principal)! Miss Brooks has a rival for the attentions of that handsome specimen: Miss Daisy Enright (Mary Jane Croft). She's a good cook, a master of the thinly-veiled insult, and every bit as competent and ruthless as Connie! These 20 digitally restored and remastered episodes co-star Gale Gordon as the blustery, autocratic Osgood Conklin; Richard Crenna as the ever-exuberant Walter Denton; and, Jane Morgan as absent-minded landlady Mrs. Davis. Includes a Program Guide by Ivan G. Shreve, Jr. Episodes Include: The Model School Teacher 11-21-48; Stretch the Basketball Star 02-13-49; Walter vs. Stretch Grudge Match 05-01-49; Peanuts, the Great Dane 05-22-49; Arguments, Arguments! 05-29-49; The Telegram 07-10-49; Mrs. Davis' Cookies (Pensacola Popovers) 07-24-49; Heat Wave 08-07-49; Conklin Causes a Fight 09-25-49; Game at Clay City 12-11-49; A Letter to Santa 12-18-49; Babysitting on New Year's Eve 01-01-50; Professorship At State U 01-22-50; Miss Enright's Dinner 02-05-50; Valentine's Day Date 02-19-50; Boynton's Barbecue 05-07-50; Mr. Boynton's Parents 05-14-50; Measles Diagnosis 10-01-50; Who's Going Where 08-21-55; Oo-Me-Me-Tocoludi-Gucci-Mo O-Moo 09-18-55
