KernerLike the film, Mazursky's The Tempest, is a fine presentation of passionate and beautiful content that is a noble attempt at greatness. Almost makes it. Beautiful and important, yet not a popular mass entertainment as a film. This is a book for the true fan of Mazursky's work and is a valuable illustration of the history of this interesting film.

Extra large Out of print paperback with photos from the 1982 film Directed by Paul Mazursky. With John Cassavetes, Gena Rowlands, Susan Sarandon. Includes some of Edmund Dulac's fantastic illustrations from Shakespeare's Tempest (provided inspiration to director and production designer: Pato Guzman- many of his sketches are also in here.
