Written by a true fan, this reflection on one of the most loved Irish films of all time collects mementos from John Ford's Oscar winning The Quiet Man. Although made more than 50 years ago, this romance, starring John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara, continues to fire the imaginations of Ireland's visitors, would-be visitors, and lovers of cinema. This collection serves as a photo album, with candid shots from behind the scenes and stills from the film itself, a miscellany of little-known facts about the locations, bit parts, costumes, and directorial commentary, and never-before-published material that will charm film buffs and engage film historians.

About the AuthorDes MacHale was born in Castlebar County Mayo, not far from where The Quiet Man was filmed. He is a professor of mathematics at University CollegeCork and the author of more than 50 books, including The Complete Guide to The Quiet Man.
