After a whirlwind courtship, Rita and Peter marry. Following their storybook wedding, an elderly man congratulates

Rita with a kiss. But it is no ordinary kiss. By a quirky twist of fate, the kiss effects a soul switch. Rita finds herself living in the old man's body and the old man in hers. The honeymoon is anything but. To complicate matters, the old man is dying. Peter must think fast to reverse the spell. In a poignant turn, the old man decides to comply, and with another magical kiss, Peter and Rita are reunited.

Veteran actors Charles Durning and Tate Donovan, joined by Arabella Field in an enchanting reading, perform this Tony-nominated drama. -- America West Magazine, May 2001
