1 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Visual AnthropologyBy Andrea HeckmanThis is a classic and should be read by all visual anthropologists. The introduction by Margaret Mead is relevant today for anyone interested in visual anthropology and visual media. This book is a MUST READ.0 of 9 people found the following review helpful. Perfect Condition and TimelyBy Maria Laura ArabboThe book arrived in a timely manner and in the exact condition stated. Thank you!

Containing 27 articles, this book covers ethnographic filming and its relations to the cinema and television; applications of filming to anthropological research, the uses of still photography, archives and video tape; subdisciplinary applications in ethnography, archaeology, bio-anthropology, museology and ethnohistory; and overcoming the funding problems of film production.
