Franz Schubert : Symphony No. 4 in C Minor, D417 ("Tragic") before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Symphony No. 4 in C Minor, D417 ("Tragic"):

Among his most popular compositions, Schubert's Fourth Symphony is especially known for the grave beauty of its slow movement. And, like many of his early works, the Fourth contains traces of Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, and Rossini. Poetically conceived and subjectively emotional in the romantic manner, however, the symphony also possesses an individuality which is pure Schubert.
