From Brand: Dowani Editions : Telemann: Concerto for Viola, Strings and Basso Continuo TWV 51:G9 in G Major before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Telemann: Concerto for Viola, Strings and Basso Continuo TWV 51:G9 in G Major:

The solo part is big, easy to read, and has fingering and dynamics suggestions, and cadenzas. It is also clearly marked with what tracks on the CD correspond to each place in each movement, so you can do the whole thing through, or focus on just certain parts. The accompaniment CD has three different speeds, plus there is a "concert" version for each movement, at full speed with orchestra. The only complaint is that the solo instrument in the slow tempo is a little too soft. Sometimes it is very hard to hear. I have looked at the piano part, but I am not a pianist so I cannot comment too much about it.

(Dowani Book/CD). Dowani Tempi Play Along is an effective and time-tested method of practicing that offers more than conventional play-along editions. Dowani 3 Tempi Play Along enables you to learn a work systematically and with accompaniment at different tempi. The first thing you hear on the CD is the concert version in a first-class recording with solo instrument and orchestral, continuo, or piano accompaniment. Then the piano or harpsichord accompaniment follows in slow and medium tempo for practice purposes, with the solo instrument heard softly in the background at a slow tempo. Finally, you can play at the original tempo to the accompaniment of an orchestra, piano, or basso continuo. All versions appearing on the CD were recorded live by renowned soloists, accompanists, and orchestras. There are no synthesised sounds in a Dowani edition!
